INTRASTATE INTEREXCHANGE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

SECTION 3 - SERVICE DESCRIPTION

3.1 PREPAID LONG DISTANCE SERVICE

3.1.1 Description

Prepaid Long Distance Service provides a residential Customer with 1000 minutes of direct-dialed outbound interexchange calling within the 48 contiguous United States for a single monthly fee, paid in advance.

3.1.2 Regulations

- A. Service may be used only for residential voice communications originated and terminated within the 48 contiguous United States. Customer is responsible for ensuring that Customer and any individual whom Customer has authorized to use the Service (an "Authorized User") use the Service in compliance with the provisions described in this Tariff and any applicable Customer Service Agreement.
- B. Service may not be used for "non-residential voice use," defined to include any use of the Service in conjunction with the running, operation or maintenance of a business, including but not limited to a home-based business or permanent Internet connection, and regardless of whether the business is operated for profit.
- C. Resale of Service is not permitted.
- D. Customers must place all telephone calls from the residence telephone number provided when the Customer applied for Service. Customer is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any passwords or access codes required for use of the Service by Customer or Authorized User.
- E. The Service will be made available on a best-efforts basis, but Company makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied, as to the availability or quality of the Service itself or any specific feature of the Service. To the extent the Company's underlying carrier relies in whole or in part on an Internet Protocol ("IP") network, Customer may experience service problems or interruptions, including but not limited to delay or "lay" in calls, reduced sound quality, dropped telephone calls, or an inability to access the network during times of peak usage.
- F. The Company reserves the right to monitor Customer's account for unauthorized or fraudulent use of the Service and may terminate the Customer's Service immediately if the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that the Customer has engaged in unauthorized or fraudulent use of the Service, including but not limited to non-residential use or use in excess of the allotted minutes. The Company reserves the right to decline or refuse service to any potential Customer for any reason, including prior nonpayment of amounts owed to the Company, subject to applicable law.
